[The following questions are displayed as a table]

VCQ1_intro VCq1_intro

In this section of the study, you will be presented with a number of statements about health and political topics, and including potential conspiracies. Please read each one carefully and answer the questions honestly. For each, you will be asked if you have heard the stated idea before or something similar. Whether or not you heard the statement before, you also will be asked to rate how likely you believe it to be true on a scale from 0 to 6, where 0 = "strongly disagree is true", 3 = "undecided or not sure," and 6 = "strongly agree is true." Some of the statements presented within this survey are similar to each other. However, please only select "heard similar" if you have heard a similar belief outside of this survey.

From time to time, most people discuss important matters with other people. Looking back over the last six months, who are the people with whom you discussed matters important to you? Please write in their first names. For individuals with the same first name, add a last initial, number, or some other signifier you can remember. For example Peter1, Peter2, or PeterM, PeterE etc. You can name up to 10 individuals, but you are not required to name 10. There is no right or wrong number of people, and the people you name could be friends, family, or any other sort of relation, but please just list those individuals with whom you discussed matters important to you in the last 6 months.

SQ_intro SQ_intro

In this last section, please answer the following four questions to the best of your ability, given the information provided.

SQ3 SQ3

A researcher has subjects put together a jigsaw puzzle either in a cold room with a loud radio or in a warm room with no radio. Subjects solve the puzzle more quickly in the warm room with no radio. True or False? The scientist cannot tell if the radio caused subjects to solve the puzzle more slowly.

1 True

2 False

SQ6 SQ6

A researcher has a group of subjects play a competitive game. Each subject's goal is to make money by buying and selling tokens. Subjects are paid a flat fee for participating in the experiment. True or False? The researcher can confidently state that the behavior in the experiment reflects real-life buying and selling behavior.

1 True

2 False

SQ8 SQ8

Subjects in an experiment must press a button whenever a blue dot flashes on their computer screen. At first, the task is easy for subjects. But as they continue to perform the task, they make more and more errors. True or False? The blue dot must flash more quickly as the task progresses.

1 True

2 False

SQ10 SQ10

A researcher develops a new method for measuring the surface tension of liquids. This method is more consistent than the old method. True or False? The new method must also be more accurate than the old method.

1 True

2 False
