Well Being 152

intro_returningshort intro survey if answered short survey

Since May 2009 we have been asking you every month about your health and economic well-being. The wealth of data emerging from these surveys is proving to be an invaluable resource to our researchers. Watch out for one of our newsletters in the fall with some of the latest findings! And thank you for your thoughtfulness and effort when answering our surveys!

intro_returningshort2 intro 2 survey if answered short survey previously

Some of the monthly surveys are short (like June and August 2010) and some are long (like the survey in July). The survey for this month is one of the shorter ones. Some questions ask what has happened since a certain date which was when we last asked you these questions. You will receive $8 for completing the survey. We understand that some of the questions are of a personal nature. Please remember that your answers are extremely important to us. Your participation is voluntary and you may skip over any questions that you would prefer not to answer. Your responses are confidential, and it helps us a great deal if you respond as completely, honestly and accurately as possible. Thank you for your participation!

BIntroShort intro to spending questions

The next questions are about how much your household spent on certain items in the last calendar month (i.e. during the month of [holder for previous month name]). As you will see, the list does not cover all types of spending, only those that tend to be most frequent. In later surveys we will ask about additional types of spending, and you will have a chance to report about those less frequently purchased items. [ (Click here for a list of spending categories that we DO NOT ask about in this survey.)

(Click here for a list of spending categories that we ask about LATER IN THIS survey.)] Please provide your best estimate of how much in total your household spent in the described categories. Please include spending by all members of your household, that is, by you and anyone living with you. Even if the amount your household spent last calendar month was unusual, please report that amount.
